Mr. Aidun N C Naidu
Chief Judge
Court Hearings & Law College Rendezvoure
76th Floor, Columbia Towers,
701 5th Ave Seattle,
Washington 98101, USA.

Sub: Inaugural Malaysia International Law Symposium -held in Kuala Lumpur on 7-8 August 2008.

Dear Justice Naidu,

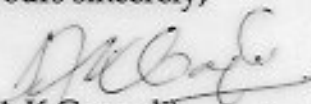

It was indeed a great pleasure meeting you at the Symposium organized jointly by the University of Malaya and the Asian Society of International Law. I was quite fascinated by your talk on the rights of the Native Americans and the Court that you preside, as the Chief Judge. I am sure, it is a fascinating experience for you on each day, when you preside in such Ecclesiastical Court. I would like to know more about the Ecclesiastical Courts in Kentucky. Would you please provide me with more literature, decisions etc. of the institution over which you preside as Chief Judge.

I wish you were at the symposium, when I spoke in the afternoon session on the 7th August. Because of your absence, I have been deprived of your valuable comments with regard to the quality of deliberations in that session.

I have authored an Article on "INTERFACE BETWEEN INTERNATIONAL LAW AND MUNICIPAL LAW: ROLE OF INDIAN JUDICIARY", which has been published as part of collection of essays in a book titled 'India and International Law', Volume 2 by M/s Martinus Nijhoff Publishers at the Netherlands, in 2008. A reprint copy of the same is enclosed for your kind perusal. It would be a great pleasure to receive your valuable comments on the same.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

(A K Ganguli)
