

ROYAL APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF JUSTICE FOR THE ROYAL BORNEO
NATIONS

KNOW ALL YE MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that I, HRH Allen Neo Weng Wah, de jure Sovereign Monarch of the Royal Borneo Nations, pursuant to the 1933 Montevideo Convention, on this February 9, 2010, hereby ordain, order, consent, and establish Judge Navin-Chandra Naidu, a.k.a Chandra Zhouenlai, as CHIEF JUSTICE for the Royal Kayan Kingdom and Sovereign Government of Royal Borneo Nations for life tenure.

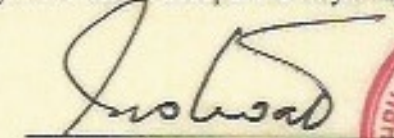

Chief Justice Navin-Chandra Naidu (Chandra Zhouenlai) shall perform the following functions, but not limited to those enumerated herein, for and in behalf of the Royal pleasure of HRH King Allen Neo:

1. Chief Legal Advisor to HRH King Allen Neo Weng Wah, hereinafter "HRH," and to the Kingdom of Kayan, and Royal Borneo Nations, not limited to affairs of state and international relations.
2. Establish and operate a functional judiciary as an organ of State reporting directly to HRH. This may require lower courts, appellate courts, and ultimately the Supreme Court of Royal Borneo Nations, so that effective checks and balances may be available for the adequate and equitable dispensation of law and justice.
3. Prepare a constitutional framework for the Kingdom as a State in the global political sphere of affairs.
4. Prepare a written Code of Conduct and suitable laws for the Kingdom as guided by God and ancient eastern philosophy.
5. Teach, train, hire, and mentor suitably qualified personnel as judges, lawyers, and other support staff for the Kingdom's judiciary.

Judge Naidu, by affixing his signature herein accepts the Royal Appointment.

Judge Navin-Chandra Naidu

HRH King Allen Neo Weng Wah
